SECTION -A
SEAL OF THE COURT

1. Seal of the Court :- The Court shall have and use as occasion may require a seal bearing a device and impression of the Ashoka Capital with an exergue if label surrounding the same, with this inscription : "The seal of the High Court at Allahabad", and the words "Satyameva Jayate" in Devanagari script. The said seal shall be delivered to and kept in the custody of the Chief Justice in such manner as he may think fit and in case of vacancy of the office of the Chief Justice or during any absence of the Chief Justice the same shall be delivered over and kept in the custody of the person appointed to act as Chief Justice.

All writs, summons, precepts, rules, orders and other mandatory processes to be used, issued or awarded by the Court shall run and be in the name style of the Court and shall be sealed with the said seal.

SECTION B-
JUDGES SITTING ALONE AND IN DIVISION COURTS

2. Powers of a single Judge and Division Court :- Any function which may be performed by the Court in the exercise of its original or appellate jurisdiction may be performed by any Judge or by any Division Court appointed or constituted for such purpose in pursuance of Article 225 of the Constitution.

3. Procedure when Judges are divided in opinion :- When a case ¹[to which the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure do not apply,] is heard by a Division Court composed of two or more Judges and the Judges are divided in opinion as to the decision to be given on any point, such point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority, if there shall be a majority,. Should the Judges be equally divided they may state the point upon which they differ and each Judge shall record his opinion thereon. The case shall then be heard upon that point by one or more of the other Judges as may be nominated by the Chief Justice and the point decided according to the opinion of the majority of the Judges who have heard the case including those who first heard it.

Comment

A plain reading of this rule indicates that where two or more judges are divided in opinion as the decision to be given on any point, such point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority, if there shall be majority, but if the judges be equally divided they are to state the point upon which they differ and each shall record his opinion thereon. It is in this eventuality the case is then to heard by one or more judges as nominated by the Chief justice. After the nomination of the judge or the judges by the Chief Justice the point is to be decided according to the opinion of the majority of the judges who have heard the case including those who who first heard it. Thus, it is obvious that only the point upon which the judges are equally divided is to be referred. It implies that reference is to made by the judges who have heard the case and have not pronounced the final judgements in the case.

Where a report under clause (e) cannot be made without an examination of the record, the office shall state that a further report would be made on receipt of the record.

4. Objection as to court-fee to be decided by Taxing Officer :- If the appellant or the applicant, as the case may be, or his Advocate contests the office report as to court-fee, he shall, before presenting the application or memorandum of appeal or objections, take it to the Taxing Officer for the determination of his objection and the Taxing Officer shall determine it forthwith.

If the Taxing Officer decides that there is a deficiency in the amount of court-fee paid, the appellant or the applicant as the case may be, shall make good such deficiency before presenting the memorandum or application in Court :

Provided that if limitation is about to expire and the time is too short to enable the appellant to make good such deficiency, he may present the memorandum of appeal or application in Court and make good such deficiency within such time as may be allowed by the Court.

If the Taxing Officer is unable to decide such objection forthwith and the limitation is about to expire, the appellant or the applicant, as the case may be, may obtain from him an endorsement to that effect and may thereafter present such memorandum or application in Court.

5. Final report as to court-fees in First Appeal :- In every first Appeal the record shall be examined by the office as soon as may be after it has been received and a final report made as to the sufficiency of court-fees.

6. 9. Hearing under Order XLI, Rule 11 of the Code :- If the Bench before which a motion is made for the admission of an application or memorandum of appeal or objections finds that it is accompanied by the necessary papers, if any, and is otherwise in order and has been presented within time, it shall -

(ii) require such Bench to direct notice of an application or memorandum of objections to be issued where notice of such application or memorandum of objections has already been served on the other party or his Advocate.

Admission of appeal :- Filing of appeal before the Registrar does not amount to admission. Under Rule 9 Registrar cannot admit appeal. The order for admission is passed by the Court. [Shanti Swarup v. Radhaswami Satsang Sabha, Agra, AIR 1969 All 248.]

Limitation of cross-objection :- Where the cross-objection was filed after the date of admission of the appeal by the Court and the objection of the appellant, on the conception that the appeal was admitted by the Registrar soon after it was filed was that the cross-objection was beyond time, it was held that the cross-objection was filed within time in relation to the date of admission of the appeal. [Shanti Swarup v. Radhaswami Satsang Sabha, Agra, AIR 1969 All 248.]

10. Application for extension of time :- If the Bench finds that a memorandum of appeal or objection or an application for revision presented beyond time is otherwise in order and is

The office shall thereupon submit a report as provided in Rule 3 as early as possible and on receipt of such report the Registrar General shall direct that all memoranda of appeal or objection or applications for revision which are not reported to be defective in any way shall be registered and numbered.

In the case of appeals and objections mentioned in clause (a) of Rule 9 after they have been registered and numbered, he shall direct notice to be issued except that no notice shall be necessary in the case of a cross-objection a copy whereof has already been served on the appellant or his Advocate.

In the case of other appeals after they have been registered and numbered he shall order that they be put up for hearing under Rule 11 of Order XLI of the Code. They shall thereafter be listed as early as may be before the Court for such hearing.

If no such note is made, a subsequent request for that purpose shall not be entertained. Where such note has been made the Registrar General shall pass suitable orders.

If such copy is not dispensed with a period between the day on which the appeal was presented and the day on which the order is made shall not be excluded in computing the period of limitation for the appeal, but if the copy is dispensed with the appeal shall be deemed to have been duly presented on the day on which it was filed.

13. Defective memorandum of appeals or objections filed under Rule 12 :- (1) If any defect in the memorandum of appeal or objection or an application for revision is pointed out in the office report, the Deputy Registrar shall immediately cause a notice of the defect to be served on the Advocate of the appellant or objector, or applicant as the case may be, requiring him to remove the defect or to file an objection within seven days of receipt of notice.

(2) The objection, if any, filed under sub-rule (1) shall, along with the report, be listed immediately for orders before the Registrar General. If the Registrar General allows the objection, he shall proceed to deal with such appeal or objection or application as if it had been reported to be in order, and if he rejects it, the defect shall be removed within seven days from the day of the rejection.

(3) If the defect is not removed within the time specified in sub-rule 1 & 2 or such further time as may be followed by the Registrar General memorandum or application shall be listed for rejection before the Court and shall be rejected unless the Court for a sufficient clause supported by an affidavit grants further time for its removal. On expiry of the further time without the defect removed, the Court shall reject the memorandum :
